

Race, rock and roll to help foster kids at Cars Under the Stars, Nov. 22

WHAT: Recognizing 50 years of racing in Palm Beach County, the Palm Beach Driving Club and the Palm Beach International Raceway are inviting car enthusiasts to enjoy a special celebration, "Cars Under The Stars," benefiting Place of Hope, the county's largest child welfare agency.

For the second year, the public is welcome to an evening of racing, food & drinks, music and a silent auction, all to benefit foster children and youth who have been displaced from their homes due to abuse, neglect and abandonment.

At the second annual "Cars Under the Stars," guests, 18 and older, will have an opportunity to ride in street and/or race cars and possibly ride with a celebrity driver.

WHEN/WHERE: Saturday, November 22, 2014. VIP Experience is 4-9 p.m.; General admission is 5-9 p.m., at Palm Beach International Raceway, 17047 Beeline Highway, Jupiter, FL 33478.

TICKET INFORMATION: Tickets can be purchased online at www.placeofhope.com (Click Upcoming Events). Gold and Silver packages are available.

General admission, $100; General admission with car ride, $125 (if purchased before Nov. 1, 2014); additional street car rides are $50 each, and additional race car rides are $100 each. Please call Amyleigh Atwater at 561-775-7195 for additional information.

WHO: Based in Palm Beach Gardens, Place of Hope is a faith-based, state-licensed child welfare organization that provides family-style foster care (emergency and long-term); family outreach and intervention; maternity care; safety for domestic minor sexually trafficked victims; transitional housing and support services; adoption and foster care recruitment and support; hope and healing opportunities for children and families who have been traumatized by abuse and neglect.

In the last decade, Place of Hope has grown from one Family Cottage to six Cottages, the Seven Stars Emergency Shelter for boys, Joann's Cottage for pregnant teens and young mothers, Villages of Hope for emancipated foster youth and our Extended Foster Care program, Hope House for victims of domestic minor sex trafficking and Homes of Hope for foster care, adoption placement and support. The organization began serving children in South County recently with the July opening of the Genesis Boys' Cottage at Place of Hope at the Haven Campus in Boca Raton.
