The volunteer corps of Place of Hope at The Leighan and David Rinker Campus recognized nine of its members for their outstanding work and dedication at an awards luncheon on Dec. 3.

At the Angel Moms' Founder's Day Awards Luncheon at The Seagate Country Club in Delray Beach, the volunteers were celebrated for the difference their support has made in the lives of foster children and youth who have aged out of foster care. The event was generously sponsored by NCCI, Inc. and Kendra Scott.

Each honoree contributes her talent and time in different ways that make our campus a real home to our residents," said Director of Advancement Lisa McDulin. "We wouldn't be able to do what we do for the children without our tremendous Angel Moms."

When presenting Mary Kaub of Boca Raton, first vice president of programs for the Boca Raton Garden Club, with her award, McDulin noted how Kaub lends her time to the renovation of the campus' wellness building and ensures that the campus is constantly beautified with plants and flowers.

The honorees, including Kaub, are:

Bonnie Wintz Boroian of Boca Raton, founder and CEO of Blissfully Better

Denise Day of Parkland, Get More Productions, LLC

Melissa Bonaros, MSPT, CHC of Boca Raton, president of MPB Sports and Rehabilitation Services

Tiel Terry-Villani, RN, CSR of Delray Beach, United Insurance Company and XPE Sports Academy

Andrea Reid, Esq. of Delray Beach, marital and family law attorney at Isaacs & Reid, P.A.

Karyn Turk of Wellington, owner/practice manager of Principle Offices and Principle Counsel

Deborah Gaslow of Boca Raton, chairman of American Heritage, The National Society Daughters of The American Revolution, NY, NY

Marcie Butters of Parkland, owner of Butters Construction & Development

Place of Hope at The Leighan and David Rinker Campus, an expansion of the Palm Beach Gardens-based Place of Hope, is home to eight boys in its Genesis Cottage and up to eight young women in the Alumni Impact Girls Cottage, which opened in May 2015. Angel Moms began recruiting friends and supporters when Place of Hope took over the campus from The Haven in 2013. Since then, the volunteer corps has swelled to 140 members, who reside from Wellington to Parkland, and is always welcoming new members to the fold.

Place of Hope at The Leighan and David Rinker Campus is the Boca Raton campus of the Palm Beach Gardens-based Place of Hope. With campuses in Palm Beach Gardens, West Palm Beach, Hobe Sound, Port St. Lucie and Boca Raton, Place of Hope is a faith-based, state-licensed child welfare organization that provides family-style foster care (emergency and long-term); family outreach and intervention; maternity care; safety for domestic minor sexually trafficked victims; transitional housing and support services; adoption and foster care recruitment and support; hope and healing opportunities for children and families who have been traumatized by abuse and neglect. Place of Hope celebrates its 15th anniversary in 2016 with the special recognition of earning the highest ranking of excellence for its work with youth from the nation's largest charity rating service, Charity Navigator, for the second year in a row.
